DOWLING COLLEGE (New York)

Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS)

Program Path:

IDS Type: Departmentally Restricted IDS

Program Type: Foundational IDS Program

Description: The Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS) program is committed to providing a positive alternative to traditional, discipline-bound master's degrees. We offer courses that are thoroughly interdisciplinary in design and content across four categories ('tracks') of study: Aesthetics, Literature; Contemporary Issues and Policy Studies; and The History of Ideas. Courses are conducted in seminar format, and taught by experienced faculty who are active scholars in the subject matter offered. (From website.)

Program Structure:

Admission Requirements: Application, Official Undergraduate Transcripts, (2) Letters of Recommendation

Credit Hours: 39 credits

Required Coursework: 3 credits, Methods and Meanings Seminar

Individually Selected Coursework: 30 credits, Ten Electives

Exit Courses & Work: 6 credits, Capstone Master's Project (One Independent Study & One Project Proseminar)

Established Department(s) of Focus: Humanities, Literature, Music, Social Sciences, Spanish (other liberal studies departments may be available)

Program Statistics:

Faculty: No IDS specific faculty information available

Students: Resident students only

Program History: No information available

Contact Information:

Address: Three available campuses: Rudolph Campus, Idle Hour Blvd., Oakdale, NY 11769; Brookhaven Campus, 1300 William Floyd Parkway, Shirley, NY 11967; and Melville Center, 145 Pinelawn Road, Suite 350 S., Melville, NY, 11747

Phone Number: 1-800-DOWLING (369-5464)