For further information, please contact the School of Education and Human Services Advising Office at 248-370-4182.

The HRD degree program covers topics in areas related to instructional design and delivery, program evaluation, performance appraisal, personnel selection, recruiting, ethics, organization development, principles of leadership, labor relations, employment law, employee involvement, and cultural diversity. Graduates are prepared with conceptual knowledge and technical and interpersonal skills for a variety of careers.

Students majoring in HRD are encouraged to earn at least 52 transferrable credits at the community college. These credits can include general education, Knowledge Applications (which is not covered by MTA/MACRAO), and additional electives before transferring to Oakland University. Ideally, the 52 credits should consist of 40 credits of general education credits and 12 elective credits.

Specific SEHS and HRD scholarships are available. An established Oakland University grade point average is required.

The HRD Student Association and Honors Society is an organization for students in the HRD major/minor at Oakland University. The purpose of the organization is to enhance, grow, and develop the HRD students at Oakland University through professional development, networking with peers and corporations, and providing all around support from the society members, board members and faculty.
