MICHIGAN TRANSFER AGREEMENTS:

In many cases it is to a student's advantage to complete the MTA or MACRAO agreement when fulfilling General Education requirements. This may allow for more flexibility when creating a schedule while at your community college. When choosing to complete MTA or MACRAO, please confirm the best courses to take to fulfill the agreement with your academic adviser at Schoolcraft.

Additional course requirements for MTA when following this major guide (minimum 30 credit hours required for MTA):

- ENG 101 (MTA Approved English Communication Course)
- ENG 102 (MTA Approved English Communication Course; this is a prerequisite for coursework at OU)
- Two MTA Approved Social Science Courses
- Two MTA Approved Science Courses
- MTA Approved Math Course

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING MTA OR MACRAO: In some cases, completing the MTA or MACRAO agreement may not be practical. When using MTA or MACRAO, your ability to make the most efficient course selections at OU may be impacted depending on your accumulated credits and chosen OU major. For more details on whether or not it is recommended for you to complete MTA or MACRAO, please consult with an OU academic adviser.

If you plan to transfer without completing a transfer agreement, please reference the table below for courses that satisfy individual categories.

EXPLORATORY:

Students with majors in the College of Arts and Sciences (CAS) must satisfy an exploratory requirement. This can be done by completing a double major or a CAS minor or concentration; or by completing a minimum of 12 credits in a single CAS rubric, outside of their major rubric. For additional options visit oakland.edu/exploratory. Only courses that are at the 100-level or above may be used to fulfill the exploratory requirement. Students using MTA or MACRAO must complete the exploratory requirement at Oakland University or another four-year institution.

Recent Changes:

HIST 134, 137 & 138 are additional options for Western Civilization Gen Ed when transferred to OU before the start of the Fall 2019 semester.

Notes:

Talking Points

- Whether you plan to join the corporate world, go to graduate school, run a political campaign or even work in Hollywood, an Oakland communication degree gives you the versatility to unleash your creative potential and achieve your dreams.
- Oakland University's communication program combines the best in leading-edge theory with practical, skill-building exercises that apply in the real world. Course selection is flexible, allowing you to design a course of study that best fits your needs!
- Getting involved in Student and Professional Organizations is highly encouraged and easy to do. Organizations include Iota Eta, the communication national honor society; OU Forensics, our nationally competitive speech team; WXOU, our student run radio station (and 2x winner of the College Station of the Year Award); Student Video Club, which engages students in creating video productions using TV production studios; and the Association for Women in Communication, which provides professional development opportunities for all our students.
- We recognize that today's college students often balance school, work and other responsibilities. To help our students pay for their education, we have communication specific scholarships as well as humanities based scholarships: the Hildum Endowed Scholarship in Communication, Nancy A. French Communication and Journalism Tuition Award, and the Werner Holzbock Humanities Scholarship.
- Communication is one of the few majors on campus that allows students to self-select from three senior capstone options, depending on their interests after graduation: an internship, a community service class, or a research class.
- Oakland is located in the heart of Automation Alley, a high-tech collection of businesses and organizations, and in the midst of one of the most diverse cultural areas of the country. Through innovative partnerships with businesses, non-profit and civic organizations, communication students gain practical, career-related experience while making professional connections that can lead to future job placements.
- The average projected starting salary for communication graduates from the class of 2018 is $51,488 (source: National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE) Winter 2018 Salary Survey).
- OU Career Services works with COM students in our intro, theory, and capstone classes, helping our students build competitive resumes and cover letters as they go through the program so that they are positioned to secure employment after graduating.
- Caring faculty created a free "Career Clothes Closet" for Communication students at OU who are going on interviews and applying for jobs.
- Panel presentations and networking opportunities are available for students to connect with and learn from recent alumni and future employers.
- The overall placement rate of College of Arts and Sciences graduates for the 2015-2016 academic year was 92% (source: Oakland University Career Services 2015-2016 Destination Survey).
