

KENDRA PORTIER:

Originally from Columbus, OH, Portier trained and apprenticed with BalletMet and eventually attended the Ohio State University, where she received a BFA with Honors. Having a zealous interest in all things creative, Portier continued to work in fine arts concurrent to her dance training; her work has been shown at the Smithsonian Institute Folkways (D.C.) , the Ohio State University (OH), Roy G. Biv (OH), SkyLAB (OH), Mad Lab (OH), Fashion Institute of Technology (NYC), various tattoo salons, and has adorned multiple album covers. Upon relocating to New York City, Portier apprenticed with David Dorfman Dance, which she is now a company member, and performed in project based work with brilliant beings such as Lisa Race/Scott Cohen, Jennifer Nugent, white road Dance Media, 5'4", Hoi Polloi (Boston, MA), Nicole Wolcott Dance, mvworks, Michael and the Go-Getters, and Alexandra Beller Dances.
