

MELINDA CONWAY CALLAHAN

President, LMMC Consulting

Melinda Conway Callahan has over 30 years of experience in philanthropy, community and public relations, government relations and governance. She provides consulting services for many not for profit organizations, including Cass Community Social Services in Detroit, Michigan. An organization impacting generational poverty. She has served in the following positions, Chief Development Officer for FOCUS: Hope and Forgotten Harvest, President of Crittenton Hospital Medical Center Foundation and Presbyterian Villages of Michigan Foundation. Previous positions include: Executive Director of the Rochester Community Schools Foundation, Vice President of Development, Marketing, Communications and Planning at Michigan Health Care Corporation and 16 years at The Detroit Medical Center in a variety of leadership roles.

She is a graduate of Michigan State University and has a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Oakland University. She taught a Master's program for 6 years part-time at Wayne State University. She is a published author, national speaker and consultant for foundations and leadership organizations. She serves on several professional and not-for-profit board of directors: Association of Fundraising Professionals Foundation; Grantmakers in Aging Board, Meadowbrook Theater and the Village of East Harbor. She is a graduate of Leadership Detroit, Leadership Oakland and Inforum Leadership Executive Program.