Wednesday, March 6

Description:

This workshop will provide an overview of the process of documenting evidence for the OUWB faculty promotion process. Promotion and Tenure are critical milestones in a faculty member's career. Candidates for promotion are responsible for proving that their academic promotion has been earned. This documentation must be clear and unequivocal as the promotion and/or tenure application is scrutinized at several levels of the School of Medicine and the University to verify that criteria have been met. Although many faculty are well prepared to document their achievements, understanding what constitutes quality evidence can be challenging.

Objectives:

By the end of this session, participants will be able to:

1. Describe the best practices used for documenting evidence in the achievement categories required for promotion.
2. Summarize the types of documents that are relevant for documenting achievement.
3. Distinguish the parameters of selecting good evaluators for letters of recommendation.
