

WHY MAJOR IN PHILOSOPHY?

With a versatile degree in philosophy, you will be prepared to work in any field that values critical-thinking and problem-solving skills. Oakland University's philosophy program also provides solid training for advanced study in fields such as law, government, public administration, ministry and teaching. The benefits of studying philosophy can enhance a student's quality of life in numerous ways:

- Critical reasoning as a shared practice helps to improve the human condition.
- A contemplative life rich in philosophical reflection is intrinsically valuable.
- The intellectual skills that philosophy majors acquire — analytic reasoning and writing — enable them to achieve among the highest levels of success in graduate education and career advancement. For example, philosophy majors outperform all other social science, humanities and vocational majors on the Graduate Record Exam (GRE).
- Philosophy majors rank second among all majors (with math majors ranking first) in their performance on the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT), according to the Journal of Economic Education. (phil.ufl.edu/ugrad/whatis/LSATtable.html)
- Philosophy majors leave college with intellectual skills that result in greater financial success at mid-career than most college graduates outside of the technical sciences like math and engineering.
- In terms of net earnings, subtracted from educational costs, philosophy majors get a return on investment equivalent to engineering or health majors.
