The NMT specialization prepares students for a clinical internship. Nuclear medicine technologists utilize small amounts of radioactive materials for diagnosis, therapy and research. The Nuclear Medicine Technology (NMT) specialization is available through a partnership between the Department of Clinical and Diagnostic Sciences, and the Nuclear Medicine Institute at the University of Findlay (Findlay, Ohio). Admission to the University of Findlay Nuclear Medicine Technology program is through a competitive admissions process.

TRANSFERRING WITH THE MICHIGAN TRANSFER AGREEMENT (MTA):

When choosing to complete MTA to satisfy General Education, please confirm the best courses to take to fulfill the agreement with your academic adviser at NMC or at the NMC MTA Approved Courses website. Completing MTA when following this major guide will satisfy OU's transferable General Education requirements.

Additional course requirements for MTA when following this major guide
(minimum 30 credit hours required for MTA):

ENG 111 and ENG 112 (required prerequisite for coursework at OU)
MTA Approved Social Science (PSY 101 recommended)
MTA Approved Social Science
MTA Approved Humanities
MTA Approved Humanities

TRANSFERRING WITHOUT MTA:

If you intend to transfer without MTA, you can choose to complete additional coursework to fulfill OU's individual General Education categories instead. When following this major guide, please reference the NMC General Education Transfer Guide for the NMC courses that satisfy these specific OU General Education categories:

- Writing Foundations (ENG 112)
- Arts
- Foreign Language and Culture
- Global Perspective
- Literature
- Social Science (PSY 101 recommended)
- Western Civilization
- U.S. Diversity

Please contact the School of Health Sciences Academic Advising office at 248-370-2369, email shs@oakland.edu, or visit their website for more information regarding your major program.

NOTES:

Students must have a minimum cumulative transfer GPA of 2.8 in order to be admitted to the Clinical Diagnostic Sciences curriculum, and admission into the internship in order to add any specializations. Acceptance into the University of Findlay Nuclear Medicine Technology program is competitive and is based on grade point average, personal interview and letters of recommendation.

Oakland University will always honor the MACRAO transfer agreement and apply it to the General Education requirement the same as MTA.

OU's ECLIPSE program, a unique community-engaged leadership initiative, is one of only a few health science specific leadership programs in the country.
