Announcements

Congratulations to Dr. Jennifer Vonk, who was awarded with the “Outstanding Graduate Mentor Award” from Oakland University (2018-19).

Graduate student Anna Szala was awarded the "First Time Graduate to Oakland University" by the International Students and Scholars Office, which is awarded to a highly qualified international graduate student newly admitted to OU.

Todd Shackelford was announced as member of the inaugural Advisory Board to The Oklahoma Center for Evolutionary Analysis (The Ocean), at Oklahoma State University.

Events

Mar 1: Michigan Academy of Science, Arts, & Letters Annual Meetings, Alma College, MI.
  • Nicholas, A. E., Rothig, O., & Taku, K. Failure is in the eye of the beholder: Moderating effects of subjective failure experiences on psychological outcomes.

Mar 12: Notes from the field Workshop.
  11:30-1PM. 242 KL, RSVP: ternes@oakland.edu
  • Williams, K. Measuring student learning outcomes using multiple choice exams: What has worked for the undergraduate psychology program.

Mar 15: Graduate Student Research Conference, Oakland University, Oakland Center.
  • Nicholas, A., & Rothig, O. What has discrimination done for you: Subjective racial discrimination moderating psychological outcomes. Poster presentation.
  • Tratner, A. Childhood Religious Experiences with Peers and Primary Caregivers Differently Predict Adult Religiosity. Oral Presentation.

Mar 15: Chernobyl Then and Now: A Global Perspective (OC Founders Ballrooms)
  • Taku, K. Fukushima to Chernobyl: Posttraumatic growth.

Mar 27: Lunch Bunch 12-1PM. Talks by Kayla Shephard and Ginny Mitchell

Recent Publications

Presentations

