Additional information is available by contacting the Oakland University Study Abroad office, or by emailing Dr. Michael Pytlik: pytlik@oakland.edu.

This trip satisfies one area in the Judaic Studies minor requirements.

SUMMER 02 RELIGIOUS STUDIES STUDY ABROAD OPPORTUNITY -

ST: CROSS AND CROWN

The first half of the course, on campus lectures and readings, will provide the historical background of the Tudor monarchy that enables the students to understand and analyze the cultural development of England. The second portion of the course, 10 days in London, England, is designed to provide the vivid travel experience that immerses the students in English culture and encourages analysis of England's cultural development. Journaling and daily meetings will guide this understanding and analysis.
