

Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS)

Program Path:

INTD Type: Departmentally Restricted INTD

Program Type: Foundational INTD Program

Description: The Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS) provides a multidisciplinary graduate opportunity to the intellectually curious through the study of interdisciplinary themes that draw from various academic disciplines. There are four tracks in the MALS program: Humanities, Social Science, Cultural Studies - concentration in Women's and Gender Studies, and Innovative Research - concentration in Global Development and Social Justice. The program is designed to provide a basis for a number of professional goals; it is not designed to duplicate or replace the specialized disciplinary training required for earning a PhD, though it is an excellent preparation for such training. The program is especially suited for the working professional seeking to expand his or her horizons. (From website.)
