

Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS)Program Path:*IDS Type: Unrestricted IDSProgram Type: Floating IDS Program

Description: The Master of Arts in Liberal Studies program at Wake Forest University is a nontraditional program that offers adult learners the opportunity to explore timeless human questions and to study essential human experiences within Wake Forest's long tradition of commitment to liberal arts education. Students pursue graduate liberal studies not for narrow professional advancement, but to continue their intellectual growth and to broaden their perspectives. Liberal Studies students range in age from their mid-twenties to their late seventies, and represent all walks of life. They share the common desire to keep learning and growing, to pursue their own educational interests, and to develop their fullest human potential. With their varied life experiences they not only benefit from, but also contribute significantly to the success of the Liberal Studies program. Along with faculty devoted to the liberal ideals represented by Wake Forest University, they form a vital, exciting, and immensely rewarding learning community. (From website.)

Program Structure:

Admission Requirements: Application, Official Undergraduate Transcripts, Statement of Purpose (three pages, double spaced), (2) Letters of Recommendation, Interview

Credit Hours: 30 credits

Required Coursework: None

Individually Selected Coursework: 27 credits, 12 credits must be Liberal Studies Seminars (minimum), 15 credits of Electives

Exit Courses & Work: 3 credits, Capstone Project

Established Department(s) of Focus: Open

Program Statistics:

Faculty: No IDS specific faculty information available

Students: Resident students only

Program History: No information available

Contact Information:

Address: MALS, PO 6103, Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, NC 27109

Phone Number: 336-758-5232

Email: mals@wfu.edu

Website: <http://www.wfu.edu/mals/>