

Master of Arts in Global Leadership and Sustainable Development

Program Path:

IDS Type: Departmentally Restricted IDS

Coursework Type: Fixed IDS Program

Description: The Master of Arts in Global Leadership and Sustainable Development is designed for students who want international careers in a world of growing regionalism and globalization--a world that is increasingly characterized by change, complexity, and paradox. Students will learn relevant analytical tools, interdisciplinary theories related to globalization and change, international business practices, and strategies for adding value and assuming leadership positions in organizations of all types, including multinational, governmental, and non-governmental organizations. Additional core courses will introduce students to cross-cultural issues in communication, decision-making, and negotiation. (From website.)

Program Structure:

Admission Requirements: Application, Official Undergraduate Transcripts, Resume, Personal Statement Essay

Prerequisites: 6 credits of undergraduate research methods and statistics, two years of full-time experience in an organization (business, governmental or non-governmental)

Credit Hours: 42 credits

Required Courses: 33 credits, Core coursework

Individually Selected Coursework: 3 credits, One Elective

Exit Courses & Work: 6 credits, Capstone courses

Established Department(s) of Focus: Political Science, Communication, Economics, Business, Information Systems, Law

Program Statistics:

Faculty: 10 department faculty members

Students: Resident students only

Program History: No information available

Contact Information:

Address: Graduate Admissions Office, 1164 Bishop Street, Suite 911, Honolulu, HI 96813 USA

Phone Number: 808-544-8034

Email: grad@hpu.edu

Website: <http://www.hpu.edu/CHSS/SocialSciences/GLSD/index.html>