

HAWAII PACIFIC UNIVERSITY

(Hawaii)

Master of Arts in Organizational Change (MA/OC)

Program Path:

IDS Type: Departmentally Restricted IDS

Coursework Type: Fixed IDS Program

Description: Hawaii Pacific University's Master of Arts in Organizational Change (MA/OC) emphasizes the management, design, implementation, and application of such change methods as continuous improvement and performance management. Organizational change involves a multi-disciplinary perspective and utilizes concepts and methods from such fields as management, sociology, and anthropology, organizational development, technology, psychology, and comparative economics. Students learn how to design innovations for organizational culture change, as well as how to implement an actual program of change in an organization. (From website.)

Program Structure:

Admission Requirements: Application, Official Undergraduate Transcripts, Resume, Personal Statement Essay

Prerequisites: 6 credits of undergraduate research methods and statistics

Credit Hours: 42 credits

Required Courses: 36 credits, Core courses

Individually Selected Coursework: 6 credits, Two courses to be selected from 4 possible courses

Exit Courses & Work: 6 credits, Capstone courses

Established Department(s) of Focus: Political Science of Organizational Change & Global Leadership, Information Systems

Program Statistics:

Faculty: 10 department faculty members

Students: Resident students only

Program History: No information available

Contact Information:

Address: Graduate Admissions Office, 1164 Bishop Street, Suite 911, Honolulu, HI 96813 USA

Phone Number: 808-544-8034

Email: grad@hpu.edu

Website: <http://www.hpu.edu/CBA/Master/MAOC/index.html>