

Master of Arts in Liberal Studies

Program Path:

IDS Type: Departmentally Restricted IDS

Program Type: Floating IDS Program

Description: There is a difference, said Augustine, between living, and living wisely. The Master of Arts in Liberal Studies at Notre Dame is about that difference. Broaden your background and perspective through a variety of courses including Ethical Issues in Science and Technology, African History and Culture, Cinema and Classics, and Religion and Society. Teachers who are interested in studying the content areas, rather than pedagogy, will benefit professionally, as will others who seek to hone their reasoning and critical thinking skills. Although interdisciplinary in content, this degree is available with an art, English, or history concentration. (From website.)
