

Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS)

Program Path:

IDS Type: Unrestricted IDS

Program Type: Foundational IDS Program

Description: Oakland University's Master of Arts in Liberal Studies (MALS) degree program is a highly challenging, interdisciplinary exploration of the liberal arts, for post-baccalaureate students wishing to broaden their education through rigorous study outside traditional areas of specialization. MALS students are strongly motivated individuals who help to shape their own course of study through the unique combinations of core and elective courses they choose. Through the MALS program students take advantage of opportunities to present their research in professional and community settings. The program is designed for students who wish to pursue graduate study on a part-time basis to balance professional and personal responsibilities. (From website.)

Program Structure:

Admission Requirements: Application, Official Undergraduate Transcripts, Statement of Purpose (3 pages or less), (2) Letters of Recommendation

Credit Hours: 36 credits

Required Coursework: 4 credits, One Core course

Individually Selected Coursework: 28 credits, Two Seminars and Five Electives

Exit Courses & Work: 4 credits, Final Project

Established Department(s) of Focus: Open

Program Statistics:

Faculty: No IDS specific faculty information available

Students: Resident students only; program designed for part-time students

Program History: No information available

Contact Information:

Address: Master of Arts in Liberal Studies Program, 221 Varner Hall, Rochester, MI 48309-4401

Phone Number: 248-370-2539

Email: Email link available on the website