

Master of Arts in Liberal Studies

Program Path:

IDS Type: Departmentally Restricted IDS

Program Type: Foundational IDS Program

Description: The Graduate Program in Liberal Studies is designed for mature students with varied work and life experiences. Small classes encourage the in-depth exploration of ideas. Classes meet at convenient times, either in the late afternoon or early evening, in order to accommodate returning students who work. If you like to read and then discuss the ideas your reading has generated; if you have intellectual interests which you wish to explore and cross-fertilize; if you wish to acquire knowledge beyond the professional specialty in which you are already an expert, Liberal Studies may be just what you are looking for. (From website.)

Program Structure:

Admission Requirements: Application, Official Undergraduate Transcripts, Personal Statement, Academic Writing Sample, (2) Letters of Recommendation

Credit Hours: 30 credits

Required Coursework: 9 credits—Three Interdisciplinary colloquia

Individually Selected Coursework: 18 credits—Electives

Exit Courses & Work: 3 credits, Capstone course and research paper

Established Department(s) of Focus: Liberal Studies, Childhood Studies, English, History, Law, Psychology, Public Policy

Program Statistics:

Faculty: No IDS specific faculty information available

Students: Resident students only; all classes offered in the late afternoon and evening

Program History: No information available

Contact Information:

Address: The Graduate School, Liberal Studies Department, 311 North Fifth St., Camden, NJ 08102-1405

Phone Number: 856-225-6700

Email: gradlibs@camden.rutgers.edu