

ALFREDO CASAB,
Attorney at Law, Dawda, Mann, Mulcahy & Sadler, PLC

Alfredo Casab is a member of the law firm Dawda, Mann, Mulcahy & Sadler PLC, in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan. He concentrates his legal practice on real estate and business transactions and litigation.

Mr. Casab's real estate practice is focused primarily on shopping center development, leasing and existing site acquisitions and sales. His business practice is focused on the life cycle of a business, including formation, day-to-day issues, and divestitures. His litigation practice is focused primarily on representing financial institutions and on shareholder disputes.

Mr. Casab is a member of various professional organizations, including the International Council of Shopping Centers. On the public service front, he serves on the Oakland University Economics Department Board of Advisors and the Hispanic Bar Association of Michigan (President, 2013-2015), and has served on various other boards including National Society of Hispanic MBAs (Detroit Chapter), and the Hispanic National Bar Association.

Mr. Casab received a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Economics from Oakland University in 1993, and a Juris Doctor degree from Wayne State University Law School in 1996.

Mr. Casab's Company Website: www.dawdamann.com