Fall 2020 Commencement

December 19, 2020

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY MOTTO

The motto of Oakland University, “Sequir Virtute E. Canoscenza,” which is incorporated in its seal, has a distinguished origin, Canto XXVI, line 120, of Dante’s Inferno.

These are the final words of Ulysses’ great speech to his men urging them to sail on and on in pursuit of knowledge and experience of the world — even beyond the pillars of Hercules, traditionally the frontier and limit of legitimate exploration.

This is the three-line stanza:

Considerate la vostra semenza

Fatti non foste a viver come bruti

Ma per seguir virtute e canoscenza

Consider your birth

You were not made to live like brutes

But to follow courage and knowledge

Message from the President

Congratulations to the Oakland University graduating class of 2020. Today we celebrate and honor you for your hard work and dedication that has helped you reach this milestone. In addition, you have demonstrated exceptional resilience and tenacity during an unforeseen and historic crisis. This makes your accomplishments even more extraordinary and for this you should be very proud.

Your experiences at Oakland have prepared you to contribute to a diverse, rapidly changing and increasingly global world in which you will find many opportunities. Your education and response to these unique circumstances have equipped you to help make the world a better place and to serve others with compassion and love.

As you embark on your new journey, always remember your time at Oakland and the people you have met; the students, faculty and staff that have contributed to the person you have become today. And, know that you also have made a difference in the lives of others and they, too, will remember you.

On behalf of the faculty and staff of Oakland University, we applaud you on this significant achievement. We wish you an overwhelming abundance of success in all your endeavors and hope that you will stay connected.

Ora Hirsch Pescovitz, MD
President

Message from the Interim Provost

On behalf of the campus community, I'd like to congratulate each of you on becoming a member of the Oakland University Class of 2020. You have earned the opportunity to venture into your academic and professional career with great confidence and pride.

You have seen firsthand the benefit of setting ambitious goals and working diligently to achieve them. You have demonstrated strength and tenacity in overcoming challenges that have come before you. With that same determination, I encourage you to always pursue your passions and to remember that in doing so, you will make noteworthy and valued contributions to the world around you.

I encourage you to embrace learning and personal growth as lifelong endeavors. As you do this, know that the greatest rewards you will experience in life will come as the result of employing your knowledge, talents and skills to serve others.

Once again, I commend you for your accomplishments. I wish you only the best as you accept new challenges and achieve even greater goals. Please know that the university community will always be proud to call you one of its own.

C. Michelle Piskulich, Ph.D.
Interim Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost.

About Oakland University

Oakland University was created in 1957, when the late Alfred and Matilda Wilson donated $2 million and their 1,500-acre estate to Michigan State University to begin a new college in Oakland County.

Named Michigan State University-Oakland, the new campus enrolled its first 570 students in 1959. In 1963, its name changed to Oakland University as the first class graduated with 125 students receiving diplomas. In 1970, the Michigan Legislature recognized the maturity and stature of the University by granting it autonomy, and the governor appointed Oakland University's first Board of Trustees.

From its beginnings, the University has emphasized academic quality, concentrating on providing a dynamic, student-focused learning environment with integration of liberal and professional studies by a faculty of dedicated scholar-teachers. The natural beauty of the campus, much of it still wooded and undeveloped, is enhanced by comprehensive recreational facilities and modern buildings that house the University's many academic and public service programs as well as more than 2,700 residential students.

Dedicated to preparing graduates to make meaningful and substantial contributions to the workplace, society and academia, the University is organized into eight academic units: the College of Arts and Sciences; the schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, Medicine, and Nursing; and The Honors College.

Oakland has over 140 bachelor degree programs and over 137 graduate degree and certificate programs. Doctorates are offered in education with concentrations in educational leadership, counseling and early childhood education; biomedical sciences with specializations in medical physics, health and environmental chemistry, and biological communication; reading education; systems and mechanical engineering; physical therapy; applied mathematical sciences; nursing practice; music education; computer science and informatics; psychology, medicine, and electrical and computer engineering.

The University is continuously adapting to meet the changing needs of students and the marketplace. New programs delivered online and on campus include master's degree programs in nursing, psychology, training and development, public health, software engineering, an Executive MBA program in health care management, and innovative Honors College courses. Business and industry partnerships provide unprecedented opportunities for advanced, hands-on learning.

Now, over 19,000 students attend classes at Oakland University each year, and the number of OU alumni has increased to more than 100,000.

MACE AND PRESIDENT'S MEDALLION

In medieval times, a mace was used in warfare. The mace is one of the oldest traditions in academe dating back to the early 1400's when it transitioned from warfare to ceremonial use. Considered a symbol of the University itself, the scepter mace is carried by the University marshal during commencement, convocation and other ceremonial events to signify the arrival of the faculty processional. Oakland's mace, created in 1994, was crafted by jeweler and OU alumnus, Paul Haig and designer Robert Dobbie of P.R. Haig Jewelers in Rochester.

The 30-inch long, approximately 8-pound mace has a white oak handle trimmed with sterling silver ribbon. A black obsidian disk on top is ringed with silver and is inscribed with the University motto. Obsidian is a natural black glass formed by the earth. On each side of the obsidian disk, there is a 14k yellow gold sail. On the base of the handle, a gold oak tree was modeled after a live tree on campus. The clean, straightforward design of the mace reflects the fact that Oakland University is a contemporary institution.

The President's Medallion, also created in 1994 by the same jeweler, is six inches in diameter and reveals the University sail, hangs on a silver chain and is worn by the president at ceremonial events. It is a permanent part of the University's president's academic regalia.

Mission

Oakland University cultivates the full potential of a diverse and inclusive community. As a public doctoral institution, we impact Michigan and the world through education, research, scholarship, and creative activity.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

An edifying note contributed by a certain anonymous doctor of philosophy.

On at least two solemn occasions during the academic calendar — spring and fall commencement — the faculty of the University publicly displays its full academic regalia and participates in the liturgy of processional and recessional, that curious coming and going that symbolizes the ceremony of commencement. The purposes of commencement are well known, but the reasons for the peculiar garb of the celebrants and their odd order of march are often as obscure to the audience as they are, in fact, to the faculty itself. This note may serve to explain academic dress and the professional pecking order it costumes.

Contemporary academics are descendants of clerical schoolmen in the universities of medieval Europe. Like the clergy, members of the bench and bar, and other learned professions, medieval scholars were clothed in heavy robes to stay warm in unheated stone buildings. Like all members of a hierarchical society, the medieval faculties rejoiced in visible insignia of rank. These outward signs of accomplishment and authority were tailored into robes. Although the need for such voluminous garments to keep the scholar from freezing is long past, the use of them as emblems of dignity remains. You will observe that all caps and gowns worn by our faculty are black, with certain exceptions. Black was the color adopted by mutual agreement among American universities at the end of the 19th century. In Europe, each University has its own distinctive gown, varying in color and cut from all others.

There are three basic academic degrees: the baccalaureate or bachelor's degree, the master's degree, and the doctorate. A special style of robe is prescribed for each. The bachelor's gown is sparsely cut, neat, but a bit skimpy and unadorned, as befits apprentices. The master's gown is still simple, but fuller, sports a sleeve of extraordinary design impossible to describe, and has a hood draped from the shoulders down the back. Once used to keep the frost from the tonsured heads of medieval clerks, the hood is solely a badge of a degree of scholarly achievement. The master's hood is small and narrow, but displays the colors of the institution that awarded the degree. If you knew the colors of American universities, you could easily identify whence came our masters. The doctoral robe is the most handsome of academic raiment. Generous of cut, of fine aristocratic stuff, it is faced with velvet chevrons on the ample sleeves. You will note that most of the velvet facings and chevrons are black, but that some are of other colors. According to personal taste, the doctor may display the color of his or her doctoral degree on the sleeves and facings: light blue for education, pink for music, apricot for nursing, orange for engineering, and many more. The royal blue of the Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) is the most commonly seen in liberal arts institutions such as Oakland. The doctor's hood is the most elegant of all academic appurtenances. Large and graceful, it is lined in satin with the colors of the University that awarded the degree and is bordered with the color of the degree itself. Most academic costumes include the square cap called a mortarboard; the doctor's tassel may be either black or gold — tassels of all other degrees are black and stringy.

To instructed eyes, the order of march in the processional and recessional reveals the standing of individuals in the institution's formal hierarchy. In the processional, the order of entrance into the hall is, quite fittingly, from most junior to most senior. The baccalaureate candidates enter first, followed successively by the masters and doctoral candidates with the whole separated from the faculty by a decent interval. In the faculty order, the instructors precede the assistant professors that in turn are followed by the associate professors. The august full professors bring up the rear. After a respectful distance come the deans who in turn are separated by a significant space from the awful majesty of the platform party, the vice president, the president, and the members of the board of trustees.

All remain standing until the board is seated. After the ceremony, the order of recessional is the reverse of the processional. The greatest dignitaries stream out first, with the artfully organized ranks of priority wallowing in their wake.

It is hoped that these notes may make more intelligible the spectacle you are witnessing today. A discerning intelligence may detect in it many clues to an understanding of the academic profession as it confronts the ambiguities of the future with ancient wisdom and dignified confidence.

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY FIGHT SONG

Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Fight the whole game long
Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Keep the Grizzlies strong.

While the battle rages
And our work's not done
We will fight for glory
'Til the game is won

Go Black!

Go Gold!

Go Fight!

Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Fight the whole game long
Fight, fight, fight for Oakland
Keep the Grizzlies strong.

When the game is over
And the story's told
O-U will claim vic'try
We're the black and gold! O-U!

PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLAR MEDALLION

The Oakland University Presidential Scholar Medallion is a special recognition for Presidential Scholars who have completed specific requirements while completing their degree. These superior achievements accomplished by the students are recognized by the award of the gold medallion worn over academic regalia.

The December 2020 graduates of the Presidential Award are:

Tara Apostolovski
Nicholas Samuel Barba
Samantha Marie Belz

Josiah C. Holmberg
Adrianna Maria Jurek
Simon Joseph Miller

Nicholas Anthony Musienko
Danielle Emily Nicholson
Mason C. Turner

HONORS COLLEGE

The Honors College has been established for highly motivated students who wish an unusually challenging undergraduate education. It provides a specially designed general education and additional requirements in conjunction with a departmental major in the College of Arts and Sciences, Integrative Studies or in one of the professional schools.

Honors College graduates are identified by a medallion worn over academic regalia.

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY™

Alumni Association

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on your graduation! Thank you for all that you have done during your time here as students – you are living, breathing examples of the transformation and opportunity made possible by an Oakland University education. I am especially proud to congratulate our Legacy graduates, whose families – like mine – have made OU a family tradition.

The University has enjoyed remarkable growth during your time at OU. I encourage you to stay in touch and remain engaged in the life of the University through the alumni association.

Together, we make a difference by joining fellow alumni at events that support scholarships and programs, volunteering our time, making a gift, advocating for OU, mentoring OU students, and sharing our OU pride. One of the most important things we can continue is to support scholarships and provide opportunities that help ensure the success of the next generation of OU graduates.

As a graduate of OU, you automatically qualify to receive the benefits available through the association without membership fees. On behalf of the Oakland University Alumni Association Board of Directors, I hope that this will encourage you to continue to participate in the life of the University in a way that is meaningful for you.

Good luck in all you do as you begin this next chapter in your life.

Best Regards,
Bryan Barnett, SBA '98
Chair, OUAA Board of Directors

This program contains an unofficial list of candidates for degrees and honors for 2020. The lists are as accurate as possible; however, because of printing deadlines, names of some degree recipients may not appear, while names of degree candidates may appear even though they have not completed their degree requirements.

The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the Academic Records Office, 102 O'Dowd Hall, 586 Pioneer Drive, Rochester, Michigan 48309-4401.
